

GOVERNMENT OF MIZORAM

MIZORAM HOME GUARDS AND CIVIL DEFENCE DEPARTMENT

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 4(1)(b) of the Right to Information Act, 2005, Manual of Home Guards and Civil Defence Department is hereby published as under.

(i) The particulars of its organization, function and duties;

1.1 Introduction

Home Guards in India were raised on 6th December, 1946 in Bombay to assist the police in controlling civil disturbances and communal riots. Subsequently, the concept of a voluntary citizens' force as auxiliary to the police for maintenance of law and order and for meeting emergencies like floods fires, famines, etc. was adopted by several other states. In the wake of the Chinese Aggression in 1962, the Centre advised the States and Union Territories to merge their existing voluntary organizations into one all-India force known as 'Home Guards' which would be voluntary both in concept and character.

1.2 Role of Home Guards in India

- (a) Serve as auxiliary to the police and assist in maintaining internal security.
- (b) Assist the community in maintaining any kind of emergency: air raid, fire, flood, epidemic and so on.
- (c) Organize functional units to provide essential services such as motor transport, pioneer and engineer groups, fire brigades, nursing and first aid, operation of water and power supply in installations, etc.
- (d) Promote communal harmony and give assistance to the administration in protecting weaker sections of the society.
- (e) Participate in socio-economic and welfare activities such as adult education, health and hygiene, development schemes and such other tasks as are deemed useful.

1.3 Mizoram Home Guards & Civil Defence

Mission of the Mizoram Home Guards is to provide opportunity to the citizens of Mizoram for selfless volunteer service to maintain the continuity of essential public services and to ensure safety and security of private and public property in the state.

The Mizoram Home Guards are mainly employed in various armed security deployments across the state of Mizoram. The duties being performed by the volunteers include guarding of jails, banks, radio stations, government buildings & installations, traffic duties etc.

Civil Defence in the state was raised and combined with Mizoram Home Guards Department on 20.04.2016. The process of actual creation on ground is underway. Inclusion of Civil Defence in the RTI Manual will be made after it has been successfully raised on ground.
